JEFF NOW STRIPS FOR ACTION— MAY MOVE CAMP TO SANTA CRUZ

Ben Lomond, Cal., April 18.—Visitors to James J. Jeffries' training camp today witnessed the rather unusual sight of the former champion stripped to the waist while going through his stunts. After laboring vigorously with the chest weights for half an hour, with the perspiration rolling off of him, Jeffries suddenly concluded it was too warm to work that way and removed his heavy undershirt in which he has heretofore exercised.

Jeffries then went at the punching bag with a vim that threatened to wreck the apparatus.

In the bright sunlight he loomed up big and looked almost as muscular as in his former days. It showed that his two weeks' training has already served to remove considerable superfluous fat from the upper part of his body, while lower down there is still a trace of a fast fading paunch. His huge arms and hairy chest looked as formidable as in the days of his former pugilistic career.

Virtually the entire afternoon was put in by Jeffries with exercising with chest weights and punching the bag. Farmer Burns explained Jeffries' steady application to the weights was to loosen up the muscles of his back and to regain the elasticity so characteristic of the big fighter in his previous battles. "When the elasticity is gone, the athlete has been scouted by Father Time," declared Burns, as he watched Jeffries' play of muscles. As yet no announcement has been made when Jeffries will resume boxing as a part of his daily grind.

Jeffries almost broke up the ball game at Santa Cruz, which he motored ten miles to see yesterday. Several thousand people, attracted by the news of the fighter's coming, came from all directions to have a look at the pugilist and the ball park profited.

In the last half of the ninth inning, with the score 6 to 4 against the home team, Jeffries and his party left the park, whereupon the major portion of the crowd rushed out on the ground to trail the fighter. The diamond was overrun and the game was temporarily suspended.

Jeffries took such a fancy to Santa Cruz that there is talk of the training camp being shifted from Ben Lomond to the seaside town.

After the ball game Jeffries strolled on the beach and jogged along the hard sand. "This would be a great place for running," he exclaimed to Berger. "How about coming down here for training, Sam?"

Berger thought a part of the training work could be arranged for the ocean shore, and Farmer Burns chimed in with an enthusiastic remark that the salt air would be good for the big champion.

Weeks of work have been expended in putting the Ben Lomond camp in proper trim for training, and were any other ring man but Jeffries the chief factor in the matter there would be Jeffries is so full of whims and so given to acting promptly on sudden impulses that it is difficult to forecast the outcome of his Santa Cruz inclination.

More Tinkering on Football is Needed to Save Forward Pass

New York, April 18.—More tinkering with the football rules is necessary before it will be possible to save the present game and still provide an adequate defense for the defensive tactics. This is the opinion today of Henry M. Wheaton, ex-Yale player. Just back in New York after observing the workings of the new rules in spring practice at Annapolis, where he will be head coach next year, Wheaton said:

"The troubles of last year and preceding seasons with the forward pass will not disappear until a rule is adopted providing that any forward pass across the line of scrimmage which travels more than ten yards beyond the point where the ball is put in play may be caught and handled as a fair catch, under the same regulations that pertain to a catching of a kick. This would allow the defensive halfbacks to play up close to the line, preventing the line from opening the play and holding the forward passes to shorter distances.

The new tackling rule, which forbids diving tackles, is a failure, and will result in a bigger cripple list than the old regulation. Splitting of the halves into two fifteen-minute periods has also resulted unhappily in our spring practice."

SPRINGVILLE ATHLETIC CLUB ELECTS OFFICERS

Springville, April 18.—The Springville Athletic club held its annual meeting today and elected officers for the coming year, as follows: Dr. F. Dunn, president; Mark Cook, vice president; E. N. Jordan, secretary-treasurer; J. F. Wingate, Wells Smith, Peter Jensen, J. S. Houtz, Roy Weightman, directors.

The club owns a quarter-mile track and baseball diamond, which is now being put into excellent condition to be ready for the Utah county high school track meet to be held here on May 20. A baseball club has been organized with Roy Weightman, president; Wells Snow, vice president; N. K. Nielsen, secretary-treasurer; Dr. F. Dunn and Herbert Robinson, directors. The club will have charge of all matters pertaining to the local team's work. J. F. Wingate has been elected manager, with Wells Snow as assistant.

COAST AND CANADIAN POLO CLUBS JOIN UNION

New York, April 18.—According to the new polo association handicap book, the southern California and Canada clubs have entered the field and pledged allegiance to the American Polo association. They are recorded for the first time on the list. Hitherto these clubs have acknowledged only the Hurlingham club of London as authority in the game. The San Mateo and the Montreal clubs are two new recruits. Few changes in handicaps are shown. Three Californians are listed among the first twenty players.

HIGH SCHOOL CLASS TRACK MEET SATURDAY

The annual class track meet of the Salt Lake High school will be held Saturday morning on Cummings field. All of the classes in the school will be represented. Coach "Dad" Conville stated yesterday that all men who had won a letter for track would be barred from the meet.

In the sprints the sophomore class will be represented by Holding, who won third place in the century sprint in the state meet, for the American Fork high school last year and Hawley, Snow and Kass, the Ensign stake sprinters. J. Stout, G. Ramsey and Atwood will do good work for the freshmen.

Heber Romney was elected captain and Gus Backman manager, of the senior baseball team, and Will Goodspeed captain and Bob Edwards manager, of the senior track team.

FEATHERWEIGHTS ARE TRAINING FOR MATCH

Young Erlenborn and Peanuts Sinclair are both hard at work for their twenty-round bout at Ogden April 28. Erlenborn leaves this week to finish his training at Ogden. Both boys are now at shape and with ten days to finish on edge.

No featherweight bout held in Utah has attracted as much attention as the present affair and it should be a headliner all the way.

Portraits of $200 by the promoters and $150 by each boy have been posted.

CHOYNSKI TRAINS JEFF'S MIND

The Sporting Authority of Salt Lake

CHOYNSKI HAS SOME UNIQUE IDEAS ABOUT TRAINING JEFF

Chicago, April 18.—Joe Choynski, who is on his way to California to join the Jeffries camp as chief trainer, has some unique ideas for handling the big fellow, according to a special letter sent to the Evening Post from La Jolla, Colo. The dispatch follows:

"While marking time on a very interesting trip back to my native state—California—I have had much time to ponder some plans for working with James J. Jeffries at Rowdennan.

"I shall permit no one to indulge in fight talk or pugilistic fanning with Jeffries when he is at the training table or when in the evening he elects to rest on the porch as a reward for strenuous road and gymnasium work.

"It will be my duty to get him back into condition and I have my theories on how to dissipate his nervousness and his tendency to develop grousches.

"When we are out on the road no automobile or rig will be permitted to accompany us. I will try to be with him every minute. If he wishes to stow down to a walk, I will lead him, or even ruminate in some beautiful nook of the country over which I rode a mustang in my younger days and before anyone ever thought of putting a summer resort camp there, he can do so.

"In training I would have any one who cares to talk fight with Jeffries do so until his tongue is sore—the more fighting talk the better. But music, art, painting, etc., must be the subjects of conversation at the training table.

"I have theories about the nerve centers and their effect upon a pugilist in training.

"They all have been commended and corroborated by a number of Chicago physicians, some of the highest medical authorities. I'll stake my life on the man and likewise my ability to get Jeffries into a pleasant frame of mind as well as in grand physical condition.

"I have in my trunk quite a bit of paraphernalia for ascertaining nervous faults and will use the appliances on the big fellow. I have a new form of therapeutic clamp that will be used in diagnosis and remedy.

"For years I remained stationary in weight, and only weigh 167 pounds today. But I am gaining weight. I have applied the nervous center treatment upon myself—despite the fact I thought I was about the heaviest man in the world—and it is resulting in a gain of flesh. I'll be pretty light to meet the onslaughts of a 235-pound boxer. There will be no malice or grudge work in our boxing, but I'll try to hit him hard and he will try to hammer me. I will not wear a pneumatic pad over my heart. It will be my task to keep him from landing those crushing blows."

Johnson Wants Jack Welsh for Referee—Jeffries Don't Care

Chicago, April 18.—If Champion Jack Johnson has his way about the selection of a referee for his fight with James J. Jeffries on July 4, Jack Welsh of California will be the man. This assertion was made by Johnson yesterday.

The referee is to be picked sixty days before the fight, Johnson has been giving considerable thought to the matter.

Several well known referees were mentioned, but the champion would not agree on any except Welsh. He said that Jeffries would be the most serious of problems will be overcome. Yesterday was a day of rest for Johnson. He did no work, but took a long ride in his automobile.

Ben Lomond, Cal., April 18.—When James J. Jeffries was informed today that Jack Johnson had declared in favor of Jack Welsh for referee for the coming fight, he said:

"I don't believe I've given the referee question a moment's thought so far. Any of the names suggested would be agreeable to me. The selection of the referee will be in Berger's hands. Personally, I don't care much who the third man is so long as he thoroughly understands the game."

Berger said that he felt very much as Jeffries did, and had no particular choice in mind. He added: "Some time before May 4, the date for the selection of the referee, Jeffries and I will take the matter up and I will submit the names of five men, any one of whom would be agreeable to us, but at present I don't care to mention any of the five."

RICKARD GIVES SOME DOPE ON FIGHT SEATS

San Francisco, April 18.—Some valuable information as to the distance the various priced seats will be from the ringside at the Jeffries-Johnson fight was issued yesterday by Tex Rickard. There will be 8,000 of the $50 box seats, and these will extend back from the ring about forty-five feet. Of the $40 and $35 seats there will be a smaller number, so that the closest $30 seats will be about sixty feet from the ropes.

There are to be only four or five rows of the $30 seats, but there will be a number of rows of the $25 seats, which promise to be the popular priced ones, and the seats of that price will not be farther than seventy-five feet from the ringside. The first $20 seats, and the $5 pasteboards will be practically 100 feet from the scene of activities.

Some good orders were received yesterday at headquarters. One reservation for $6,000 worth of seats came from Vancouver, B. C. An excursion is being arranged in Vancouver and some 400 enthusiasts will come to San Francisco on the Marawa, one of the new boats of the Canadian-Australian line. These excursionists will make their home on the steamer during their stay in San Francisco.

Cincinnati has asked for 800 seats, and these are to be sent through a local bank, which will attend to the collection of the money.

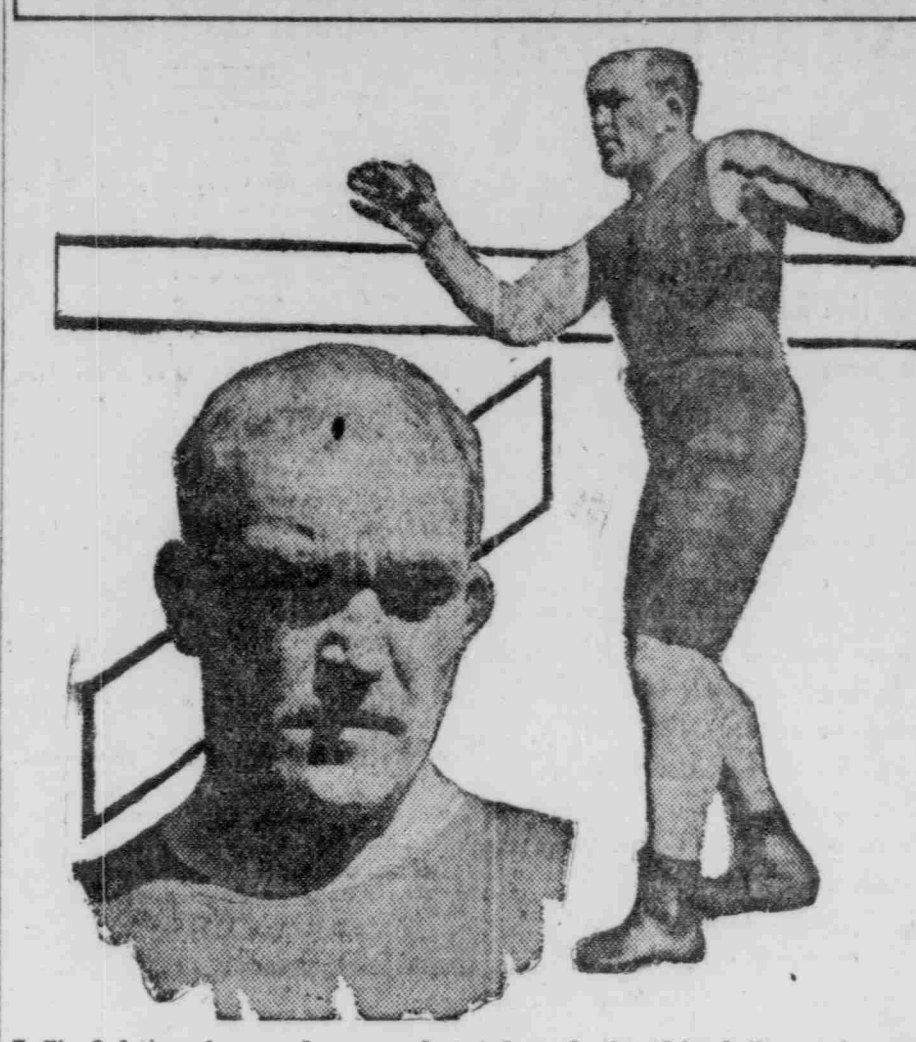

EASTERN GOLF SEASON HAS MANY TOURNEYS

New York, April 18.—Golfers are hurrying back from the south for the regular metropolitan tournament season which opens this week and starting on Thursday at Lakewood, there will be virtually no let-up until Thanksgiving day. An Atlantic City tournament follows Lakewood, and then comes Garden City, where, if last year's field is any criterion, W. J. Travis, Frederick Herschhoff, O. C. Watson and Albert Seckel will start from the first tee. More important meetings include Foxhill, Nassau, Wyckoff, Montclair, Apawamis and Ardley, the latter returning to the fold after an absence of ten years.

HOW JEFF LOOKS TODAY

Jeff's fighting face and a snapshot taken during his daily work at shadow boxing.

The two pictures above, just received from the training quarters of the undefeated champion, will doubtless please his many friends and backers in Salt Lake. The full-length picture shows Jeffries in the best condition, so far as his appearance goes, that has been seen for years. He looks in pretty fair fighting trim now. The lines in his face speak of hard work in training, and superfluous flesh is not noticeable.

Those that have seen him at his camp say that his eyes are keen and that he is still the old all-around return to old form. Jeffries will look physically fit when he enters the ring with Johnson is now conceded. How he will last under the strain is the only question.

SOME CLASS TO AMATEUR BOYS

Big Crowd at Manhattan Club
Sees Good Sport—
Ross Beats Bell.

At the Manhattan club last night a large crowd witnessed some of the best amateur boxing seen this year. Five bouts were given and the spectators saw plenty of good sport in every bout.

The wind-up between Kid Ross and Kid Bell made good. It was fast milling all the way and from going to gong Ross was the winner. He knocked Bell down in practically every round and although Bell stayed the limit, Ross had the decision by a mile.

Kid Bell started in to do things and shortly after the handshake he sent the first round he sent his heavier opponent to the mat. But from that on it was all Ross. He outboxed his man all the way, the bell saving Bell in the second round.

His weight seemed to cause Bell plenty of trouble and the colored lad did not display as much as he has heretofore shown. Both boys were in to win and there was little stalling. Bell took the count three times in the fourth round, but came back strong in the fifth and did his best work in this round, although he went to the floor once. Bell again took the count in the sixth round. The decision went to Ross.

The fireworks started with a fast and furious four-round go between Dutch Ernie of Salt Lake and Tommy Sullivan of Limerick, Ireland. Ernie carried the fight from the start, but was wild. Sullivan boxed very cautiously and gave some clean blows. Both boys were strong at the finish, but the decision went to Sullivan. Many of the crowd thought that Ernie should have had a draw.

Hale May Also Retire.

Kid Irish of Salt Lake and Eddie Johnson of Pueblo gave a fine exhibition of gameness as well as cleverness. Kid Irish, who made his first appearance in the ring last night, proved to be a clever boxer and gave promise of being heard from in the future. He showed up, especially well as an in-fighter.

Johnson, who was not as clever, was game to the core. He went to the mat four times in the second round, but each time was on his feet in a second and after the joint promoter of the "dog" fight, Irish landed a good one early in the third round and Johnson took the full count.

The Cohn of Denver and Kid Lawrence of Salt Lake, gave four fast rounds without a let-up from the beginning to the end. The two boys were tough customers in the ring and gave the crowd a run for its money.

Kid Burris was to have gone on with Cohn, but he met with an automobile accident and could not show. Cohn received much more punishment than his dusky opponent, but both boys were nearly equally matched.

That he was game and for the most part forced the fight. The referee's decision in favor of Lawrence was not at all popular. It should have been a draw.

Kid Davis and Kid Ople gave the semi-windup. Tommy Fitzgerald was scheduled to go on with Davis, but he was taken ill and could not show. The bout was Davis all the way. Ople continually holding on to the ropes and preventing Davis from getting in.

ment. Davis wanted to mix things all the time, and Ople was lucky to remain the limit. Davis got the decision.

The manager of the show announced that there would be no card at the Salt Lake next Monday. Instead the Manhattan club will put on a preliminary for the Jack Johnson show to be given at the Salt Lake theatre.

FIGHT PROMOTERS ARE ASSURED AGAINST LOSS

San Francisco, April 18.—Tex Rickard has arrived in this city from Reno, and the joint promoters of the "dog" fight will remain here for several weeks. He announced that he had received an insurance policy from Lloyd's in London, which guarantees him and Gleason indemnity against loss through death, sickness or injury to either fighter. Johnson up to $20,000. The promoters will have to spend so much money before the Fourth of July that they are fearful of losing it.

event happening to the principals in the big fight might make their outlay money wasted. They communicated with Lloyd's and the English underwriters were willing to take the risk.

JOE JEFFORD WANTS TO MEET JACK ROGERS

Park City, April 18.—Joe Jefford, the champion heavyweight of Park City, has issued a challenge to meet any heavyweight in the state. He prefers Jack Rogers of Smithfield and has posted $100 with S. L. Raddon, editor of the Park Record, that he can stop Rogers within twenty rounds.

Both men have many admirers here and the miners are confident that in the perfect condition that Jefford is in, he can defeat the Smithfield pugilist. If Rogers is not heard from within ten days, Jefford will try to meet Morgan Williams of Victor, Colorado, who is billed to box Rogers here.

AMERICANS SHOW.

St. Cloud, France, April 18.—Two third places are the best that American entries could do in the racing at St. Cloud today. W. K. Vanderbilt's Doneder and Eugene Fischeo's Antioche finished third respectively in the Prix Fleury and the Prix Chaussee.

WASATCH MEETS DEFEAT.

The Bryant school baseball team defeated the Wasatch school Monday on the Wasatch diamond by a score of 17 to 12.
